PROJECTS

City Sidekick

github.com/johngarcia144/city-sidekick | johngarcia144.github.io/city-sidekick

- City Sidekick is an all inclusive travel app that displays the weather alongside your current GPS location on a map.
- When selected in the dropdown, City Sidekick provides hotel, restaurant, and brewery recommendations of whichever city you search.
- Responsible for project GitHub repository
- Development and integration of BING maps API, Moment.JS, and OpenWeather API
- JS, CSS, HTML

Weather Dashboard

github.com/johngarcia144/weather-dashboard | johngarcia144.github.io/weather-dashboard/

- Search a city and the Weather Dashboard will show the current weather along with a 5-day forecast.
- This app also uses local storage to save your most recent searches.
- I built out this app from scratch. I began by building out the HTML framework with Bootstrap, then by incorporating the OpenWeather API and Moment.JS into the Javascript.
- JS, CSS, HTML

Work Day Scheduler

github.com/johngarcia144/workday-planner/ | johngarcia144.github.io/workday-planner

- This day-calendar application allows users to plan out their day hour by hour.
- The user types a task into the selected row and then clicks the save button to the right of the row.
- The task is then saved locally and will stay there until cleared by the user.
- Though the HTML framework was already in place, I created the CSS and Javascript necessary to make it function.
- JS, CSS, HTML
